

Puran Bartwal
Head, NRM Group
Home Town: Dehra Dun, Uttarakhand

Work Interests: Rural development and social work are areas of my interest. Strengthening of local self governance, Participatory and micro level planning and training of the middle level staff of voluntary sector and community based organisations are subjects of my interest. Last 2-3 year I was more involved in Networking and Advocacy at state level in Uttarakhand. At PSI I am involved in development of training module and organise training programme for the visioning of PSI staff as well as Partner organisations.

Personal interests: Earlier my personal interest was playing football but now I like reading on development issues. I also like watching cricket match and selected Hindi films on TV. I like traveling particularly to mountain and costal areas.
